Por los que escaparon una situación grave, llegaron aquí y plantaron sus raíces. Por la cultura Cubana que existe por toda la ciudad, una maravilla exitosa...

Me Encanta Miami

-HalfOfYou

Taking Trips

Not overseas
Best believe we taking trips
There's an I in this team
You better come equipped
Slick as ice cream
I mint it, if I'm cool on you believe I'm a dip
Dip dip
Better get some guac if you want part of this chip
Money the mindset
There's a method to my madness
Kill 'em with kindness
Mourn 'em with sadness
Password protected
No two people have the same access
Padded room with these words
There's a method to my madness

Multiverse
I'm not a doctor
But right here it gets strange
We took an allegiance
It's rocky on the plane
Ten toes down
Miami calling my name
King of this court
Extending this reign
Doing it all
With no fame
One day you'll be saying the name
Leave an imprint of my blueprint
Nothing was ever the same

Neck & Wrists

Good vibes and cafecito
I got time today? Un poquito
Hang 'em on the line
Like they set up on a T-pole
People love to dig themselves into a ditch
I guess the chase is steeple
Bet on horses while I bet on me
We not eating from the same food dog
We don't belong to the same pedigree
Just because you not my friend
Doesn't make you my enemy
Just because we not together
Don't give you the right to think you into me
Shit gets interesting

Neck and wrists don't lie
And the numbers don't either
10 books in 7 years
Y'all would think I need a breather
I feel like the 6th man of the year
Still coming off the bleachers
They say practice what you preach
But I'm far from a preacher
Learning from these lessons
The student becoming the teacher

Treat Me

Treat me like you treat me

The action is reciprocal

Trying to take stock in my heart

Collecting residuals

You just eating up the energy

Without using utensils

Eat the plate while you at it

If you can dish, then you can take it

You can beat yourself up with makeup

But I don't think you can face it

Say karma is a bitch

Shit's sweet and I can taste it

Treat me like you treat me

The Wharf

Fishbowls and D'usse
Got me acting a doozy
Humidity the sinus cure
Them shits had me acting all woozy
How do your inhibitions come out and then you want to pursue me?
Calling an audible
Life goal to go nautical
And in the end, I'm a buy my on yacht
Manifest that in my future
I am who I am
I have nothing to prove
To those who say that I'm not
These last few weeks been like Boy Scouts
How my health had my body all tied up in knots?
And the redemption is coming to all of those who think I forgot

First Class

First Class
Always been the top ten percent
Paid the cost to be the cost
Now goddamn I'm spent
Think I'm giving up
Man this ain't lent
Think I'm your utility
Man this ain't rent
Done penny nickel diming
People for they attention
Changed actions
Lead to changed affection
Think being passive
Just leads to more aggression
Multiple choice in your answers
But who the hell you testing
Got all the question marks
But who are you to question?
Got all the teachings
But who taught you a lesson?
No one yet I'm guessing
Take flight with me
Fuck around and find out
Think it's been my time
And people deserve a time out
Wondering if I'm signed
We gonna fuck around and find out
To the wheels fall off and I fucking sign out

Te Amo Miami

First things first
You better keep that same energy
We can start off cool
Then can find out we enemies
Cuz when these bars come in
And I start my own sentencing
Just call me the executioner
Cuz I'm finishing
I'm on MK
Bicycle Kick Liu Kang
You want me to dress it up?
Nah I'll do it plain
Give me my margarita
Let the sun do its thing
Moms gave me this talent
She said let the son do his thing
So going in the ropes
Time to enter the ring
Blue Skies, Blue Water
I feel at peace
Panning out my life goals
To make me feel at ease
The things I'm currently in
Just feel like a tease
Strip it all down to the core
I want more than a piece
I feel a start over coming
I feel myself asking
Is it the passion or the money?
I see myself saying
If you were to leave
Who's gonna be there for me?
I'm turning the page
Moving to that next chapter
They must be giving out Oscar's
I can sense all the actors
And when the round of applause
Who's gonna listen to your speech?
And if that room quiet,
Don't be surprised to hear that screech
Te Amo Miami

Tu eres muy importante
La ciudad es hermosa
Brillar como diamantes
Thank you for the content
And doing me a favor
I got some things to work out
I'll see you later
